INGREDIENTS
750g carrots
2 tablespoons garlic chives (please pick from the verandah herb pot just outside the kitchen door)
2 tablespoons mint

Dressing
½ lemon, juiced
1 garlic clove, crushed
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon ground cinnamon
¼ teaspoon ground cumin
¼ teaspoon paprika
2 tablespoons white wine vinegar
1/3 cup extra-virgin olive oil
2 tablespoons honey

WHAT TO DO

• Wash, peel and grate the carrots and place in a large mixing bowl.
• Wash the garlic chives and finely cut with scissors.
• Wash the mint leaves and finely chop the mint.
• Add chives and mint to the grated carrot and gently mix to combine. Set aside while you make the dressing

Dressing:
• Cut the lemon in half and juice the lemon.
• Peel the garlic.
• Crush the garlic with the salt in the mortar and pestle to form a paste.
• Add the white wine vinegar and mix to combine.
• Transfer to a medium bowl and add the honey, lemon juice, cinnamon, cumin and paprika.
• Slowly whisk in olive oil.
• Season with pepper.
• Wash up any utensils and clean your workspace.
• Pour dressing over salad just prior to serving.
• Transfer onto 4 serving bowls or platters. Don’t forget the salad servers!
